OVERVIEW

Machu Picchu by Vistadome or Observatory Train – 2 Days

Reach Machu Picchu on panoramic Vistadome or Observatory trains, overnight in Aguas Calientes and explore the citadel at a relaxed pace with your guide.

A 2-day, 1-night package to Machu Picchu is the best option to avoid the exhaustion of a day trip, allowing you to explore calmly. It usually includes transfer from Cusco, round-trip train (or Hydroelectric transportation), one night in a hotel in Aguas Calientes, entrance fees, and a guide.

The excursion to Machu Picchu is done on panoramic trains with huge windows and glass roofs. Traveling on these trains is like flying! We offer the option of traveling in economy class (Expedition or Voyager train) and first class (Vistadome or The 360o train).

This tour includes pickup from hotels in the historic center of Cusco. If your accommodation is not in the center, we will meet at the door of the Cathedral, in the Plaza de Armas. Collection will be confirmed during the days prior to the day of the activity.
